

OUR GROWING PRIDE WITH THE MOTHERLAND

Fazliddinova Zulfiyakhon Dilmurod qizi

English filology student, NamSU, Namangan

Abstract: The place, where we were born, our family, friends, neighbours are considered to be our motherland and each person always appreciate it , even if they are abroad in many cases. One of the proud profession or job is to protect the this country. By protecting you eill protect your near people such as parents, friends, and so on. This job is for courageous and brave people. This article aims to discuss the the Armed forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan and its Uzbekistan's defenders and brave citizens.

Keywords: the Republic of Uzbekistan, The Armed forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Motherland, military, bravery.

This is the homeland the word is well known to each of us, this word means us, our life and existence. Of course, every Uzbek has his own emotional experiences towards his motherland, and this is reflected in his every action, in his services to the motherland. Homeland is such a place that a person always cares for it without realizing it and shows it with his actions, he values it like his own mother. In fact, the motherland is our mother, family, neighborhood, and city, although sometimes we are far from the motherland, the feeling of patriotism shines brightly in every heart.

Every patriot belongs to his country through his honest work, craft or profession he expresses his love and respect, and he has the great profession of protecting the homeland in his heart there are brave and courageous young men who have done their duty, because peace is the highest. There is no meritorious and higher deed than blessing and protecting it. State interests, sovereignty, territorial interests of the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan integrity, protection of the peaceful life of citizens, as well as their prevention military associations established and maintained by the government for the purpose of The army of Uzbekistan, consisting of troops and units, occupies 39th place in the ranking of 140 countries. Shavkat M. Mirziyoyev was duly elected president of the Republic of Uzbekistan by a resounding majority of voters at the conclusion of 2016. President Mirziyoyev started enacting significant reforms in all spheres of state growth, including the armed forces, as soon as he took office. Since 2000, the Republic of Uzbekistan has not modernized and updated the laws governing the operation of its military forces. Therefore, modernizing the Republic of Uzbekistan's defense strategy was one of the top priority for strengthening the national army.[4] Until now, various methods have been used to conquer the country, and history is a clear proof of this, so the royal forces in Uzbekistan are divided into several armies, which are ground troops, air forces and air forces. It is divided into air defense troops, special and engineering construction troops, internal and guard troops of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, paramilitary units of the National Security Service, and border troops. Each one young men are selected with special attention to the division.

Uzbek fighters are distinguished by their brave, courageous, fearless, courageous qualities, examples of heroism. Consistent efforts aimed at educating young people in the military-patriotic spirit continue, in particular, the adoption of the concept of fundamental improvement of the system of raising the moral and educational level of military personnel of the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan. strengthening of cooperation with local government bodies to ensure the unity of the army and the people, filling the ranks of our national army with young people with a strong will and an active civil position is an example of the high attention paid to the Armed Forces in our country. In addition, the adoption of a new defense doctrine in our country, a thorough review of the composition and tasks of military structures, the improvement of the troop management system, and extremely important projects to provide our National Army with modern weapons and equipment implementation is also a clear example.

At the same time, it should be said that each of the fighters of Uzbekistan has been diligently fulfilling their duty in their country, and the past years are a witness to this, including more than 1 million soldiers and officers who participated in the Second World War, who showed selflessness behind the front. Our compatriots prove that they have a high moral will with their various services, bravery, and medical assistance they provided to citizens during the chaos caused by the coronavirus pandemic in recent years.

In our country, May 9 is designated as the day of remembrance and appreciation, and January 14 is a national event aimed at congratulating our soldiers who are the defenders of our country, organized to appreciate their dedication, bravery and great services to our country, and this holiday is widely celebrated on the scale of our country. expresses the attention, respect and thanks. In particular, we can see that big movements have started for the Day of Defenders of the Fatherland, which is approaching on January 14.

Such national holidays are not only honoring the defenders of our country, but also have a positive effect on the growing young generation, and growing young men strive to reach such a level. is considered In this field, various activities and measures aimed at educating young people in the spirit of patriotism are being actively conducted. For example, the Patriotic organization has started its activities and in the strategy of actions for 2022-2026, the goals are to further strengthen the defense capabilities of the State, to strengthen the combat readiness of the Armed Forces, its capabilities and capabilities, to educate young people in the spirit of devotion to the motherland and patriotism have been made and their implementation is expected.

In conclusion, we should always remember the names of the heroes who died in the line of duty, the dedication, bravery and heroism of the defenders of the Motherland, and recognize the high morale of the young generation. - to improve moral and patriotic qualities, to strengthen the sense of responsibility for the destiny and independence of the Motherland, to strengthen the civil position, to develop in their hearts love for the Motherland, pride in the Armed Forces, and deep respect for military service, making it our highest goal for each of us, and for us as well. an obligation is also a debt.

REFERENCES:

1. Olimjonovich, U. I., Mirhokimovich, T. A., & Ibragimovich, A. I. (2022). ARMED FORCES OF THE REPUBLIC OF UZBEKISTAN. Scientific Impulse, 1(4), 1884-1892.
2. McDermott, R. N. (2003). The armed forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan 1992–2002: threats, influences and reform. The Journal of Slavic Military Studies, 16(2), 27-50.
3. Khidoyatov, B. (2020). Stages Of Legal Regulation Of Inquiry In The Republic Of Uzbekistan. The American Journal of Political Science Law and Criminology, 2(11), 179-186.
4. Ibragimov, M. M. (2019). Priorities of the Construction of the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan in the Conditions of Development of Forms and Methods of Contemporary Armed Struggle. Military Review, 47-55.
5. Abdugani, B., Arabboy, Y., & Mashrabboy, M. (2021). General characteristics of the military committees of the armed forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan. ACADEMICIA: An International Multidisciplinary Research Journal, 11(4), 1062-1065.