INTRODUCTION

It is not an exaggeration to say that as modern innovative ideas are coming in, our potential is slowly increasing. As we have already mentioned, because new ideas are coming in, a new language is also coming to us. It's English, so most of the people know this language even if it's a little. Even if the school does not have a certificate in this language, it is impossible to hire them in the same schools. Nowadays, we say that technology is advanced, but it is not only technology, the human mind is also growing just like technology. No matter how much technology is developed, people communication is growing so much. The level of people's knowledge is not far behind the latest modern technologies. Nowadays, new programs have started to be released for young people and teachers to learn. We can increase our knowledge. Convenient facilities have been created for CEFR and IELTS national certificates. We can easily study grammar and speaking through the programs on the websites.

The new era imposes a new task and several responsibilities on the teachers of today. With the advent of modern technology, the tradition of teaching English has changed significantly. On December 10, 2012, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan I.A. Karimov adopted the decision PQ-1875, i.e. "On measures to further improve the system of learning foreign languages" on December 10, 2012. According to this decision, foreign language teachers were charged with the responsibility of introducing advanced methods of teaching using modern pedagogical and information communication technologies and preparing the growing young generation to be able to speak foreign languages freely. The decision consists of several paragraphs, and the ninth paragraph of the decision describes in detail the use of innovative technologies.

DISCUSSION AND RESULTS

There are a number of programs in Uzbekistan that should be used by the whole world, we can take "Ibrat Academy" as an example. In this program, you can easily learn a language and communicate. They will also present their own certificate for being active. Each topic is covered one by one. you will get the result.

Salary for teaching English in China depends on many factors such as teaching hours, workplace location, inclusions/bonuses, public and private sector, as well as the applicant's qualifications, education level and work experience. is considered It should also be noted that wages have increased significantly in recent years due to high demand. A standard contract in the public school system is usually less than 20 hours of teaching time, holidays including accommodation, airfare, stipend, compensation for 1-year contracts, paid public holidays, health insurance and a Z visa (work permit) etc. These positions offer an average base salary of RMB 6,000 - 7,000 per month in smaller cities and rural areas. In major cities such as Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen, and Guangzhou, these positions offer an additional RMB 10,000 per month due to high living costs. In the private sectors, however, the situation is not quite the same, with monthly salaries reaching RMB 20,000 for experienced applicants in major cities. [29] Private positions require more time, may involve teaching at multiple locations, and often require weekend and evening work schedules. This does not include accommodation, but schools usually offer a stipend for rent. if there will be teachers, they can easily go on excursions abroad for work and study. Or there are a number of our compatriots who have lived and settled in these parts. Even if it is just once to expand the scope of human potential I think that it is necessary to go for a walk to foreign countries. In order to visit a number of foreign countries with excellent weather and living conditions, we need to learn a foreign language perfectly using English courses or programs from websites. ladi Language learning is one of the most important areas in human society. Language, which is a means of communication, can be acquired practically in a natural environment, i.e. in the family, in the community or in an organized manner. Knowledge of language phenomena is taught theoretically. Knowledge of languages, especially multilingualism, is of great importance in our time of increased international relations. Pupils and students studying in our country usually study three languages. These languages are referred to by special names. These are: mother tongue, second language, and foreign language. The mother tongue is the first language that plays a special role in the formation of thinking. When talking about the second language, it is considered as the language of brothers and neighbors of other nationalities. English language has an important place in global communication in today's world. Learning this language is very important for adults and is of great importance in their personal, professional and social development. Now, let's explore the importance of learning and teaching English for adults

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, in order to increase one's knowledge and potential, a person often needs to read books and learn what he does not know one by one. This is considered our duty. In addition to using the necessary programs, if we make a little effort in our own hands, everyone will definitely achieve their goals. Furthermore, adults want practical applications to solidify what they learn. 1. Most adult students are in the English classroom due to the fact they favor to learn something new.

2. Listening and speaking competencies are the most challenging competencies for adult learners to master.

3. Speaking is the most perfect conversation ability amongst grownup learners.

4. English grammar is the most challenging language component to acquire.

5. Pair work is the most beneficial instructing technique in accordance to adult novices of English. It is always necessary to be aware that adult students are not actually that unique from youthful ones

They have more life experience and will be more critical; however they are still beginners when it comes to English. In teaching adult learners teachers should be ready to know their students and their needs. In learning process learners' experiences, skills, expectations can affect the teaching process and learning. It is important for teachers to control the balance, variety and routine in the classroom.
