Abstract: The realization of any noble intention, dream and goal depends primarily on strong peace and tranquility in the society. This is a proven fact of all times. It is not a secret that political instability prevails in some countries of the world, while in other countries non-national evils like terrorism and drug business threaten international security. Such situations encourage us to be grateful for our independence, which is the solid foundation of our peaceful and prosperous life, and to cherish it like the apple of an eye.

In the past quarter of a century, great results have been achieved in our country in terms of maintaining stable peace, developing the economy, and raising the standard of living of our people based on development. Our armed forces, formed on the basis of today's requirements, have a special place in our achievements. Because our national army is a reliable guarantee of our country's independence, security and territorial integrity. This is reflected in the Basic Law of our State. In particular, it states that "the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan will be formed to protect the independence and territorial integrity of the Republic of Uzbekistan, peaceful life and security of the population." For this purpose, the Ministry of Defense of Uzbekistan was established in 1991. On January 14, 1992, another important event in the history of our independent state took place. A decision was made to transfer all military units and units on the territory of our republic to the control of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Since 1993, January 14 has been declared "Defenders of the Fatherland Day" in our country.

In the teachings of Islam, God divided the descendants of Adam into different nations and peoples on earth. Allah the Almighty informs about this and says:

"O people! Indeed, We created you from a single male (Adam) and a single female (Eve) and made you into nations and tribes so that you may know one another. Indeed, the most honorable of you in the sight of Allah is the most pious. Verily, Allah is All-Knowing and All-Aware."

Naturally, no matter where and in which country a human child is born, this land becomes his Motherland. The place where the blood of the umbilical cord was spilled is the most valuable place for a person. Prophet Akram (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said, "If my people had not forced me to leave Makkah, I would not have left Makkah of my own free will" Therefore, loving the homeland, being a patriot, cherishing and longing for all that is in it is a delicate feeling that exists in human nature.

It is known from history that when a nation wants to humiliate another nation, it first conquers and destroys its homeland or expels them from its homeland. There is no greater humiliation and pain for a nation that sees its homeland in the hands of enemies. After all, the concepts of homeland, nation, and religion are dearer and more sacred than anything else for a person. The following words of the great scholar Alikhan Tora Soguni (may God be pleased with him) arouse enthusiasm and enthusiasm in the heart of everyone who loves the motherland and is ready to sacrifice his life for its sake: "Every person knows that the most beloved, precious, valuable there are four things. Those who do not have these four things are deprived of human dignity. They are: freedom and liberty, self-ownership of the wealth earned by hard work, motherland, where one was born and grew up, and the holy religion one has believed in for centuries.

Sages say: "A person's loyalty is determined by his concern for his country, missing his friends, and regretting the wasted moments of his life." A person's loyalty and devotion to his people is measured by his protection of the Motherland, his development, becoming strong and powerful in every way, and his contribution to the peaceful and prosperous life of his people, of course.
